WHAT WE OFFER

Intro to Dignitary/ Executive Protection Operations

Spartan Group delivers an intensive four-day Dignitary Protection program built on the latest protective practices, procedures, and operational strategies—designed to ensure the highest level of safety and mission success for your client. Modeled after U.S. Department of State protective doctrine, this course focuses on the real-world demands of Close Proximity Detail (CPD) operations. Participants train in the practical measures, decision-making processes, and operational considerations required to operate effectively within both government and civilian executive protection environments, including high-density metropolitan settings.

Instructor Cadre

Spartan Group protection courses are led by instructors with extensive U.S. military specialoperations, law enforcement, and federal protective service experience, gained in high-risk and volatile regions including Central Asia, the Middle East, and Central and South America.
